

The Rachel Walker Trio

Biography

Delightfully fresh melodies, tasteful poetry and thought provoking lyrics fuse with acoustic driven instrumental composition and jazz/blues rhythms, to create a spicy variety of music the Rachel Walker Trio titles, Zest.

The Trio is comprised of seasoned musicians who have found writing and performing music to be a driving passion and essential to a joyfully satisfying life. Performing in concert, at festivals and more intimate venues, the band focuses the majority of its resources providing for clients over the internet. The Rachel Walker Trio is currently very excited to release the 2010 album, "Best of Zest vol.2" which was recently mastered at Abbey Road Studio, UK.

Rachel Walker is the primary singer/songwriter who has been compared vocally to Kate Bush, and musically to Jan Arden and Jennifer Warden. She composes and performs on the piano, keyboard, 6 string and 12 string acoustic guitar. She has released 2 independant solo albums, Sent in 2000 and Zorobabel in 2004.

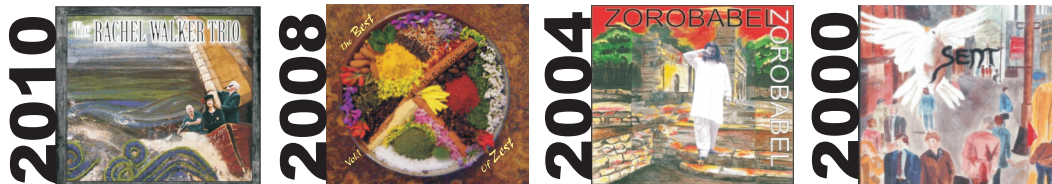

Ray Chadwick is the primary instrumentalist, classically trained he plays the acoustic bass guitar, cello, violin, mandolin, 6 & 12 string acoustic guitar, harmonica, piano and vocals.

Michael Fait is the percussionist as well as a major contributor through poetry to the writing process. Michael plays a full drumkit with jazz influenced passion and a wide variety of hand percussion adding an intellectual groove to the group.

Formed in the heart of the Cariboo region of British Columbia in 2005, the group has composed a large catalogue of music and continues to write, rehearse and record in their fully equipped rural Williams Lake studio. As a "One Stop Shop" for the television and film industry, the trio is backed by experienced and dedicated industry professionals, allowing the artist to create with a prompt and timely response to industry requirements and requests. The trio recently enjoyed working with NRK on Vancouver 2010 Olympic Broadcasts, composing for corporate web clients and product promotion.
